Table of Contents

Lewis and Clark Design Guidelines
Final Draft, April 2000

I. Introduction

Summary I-1
Summary of Washington's Lewis and Clark Story I-3
Statement of Purpose I-4
Agency Advisory Team I-4
What Do These Guidelines Address? I-5
Who Should Use These Guidelines? I-5
Why Follow These Guidelines? I-5
- Continuity
- Funding and Resource Opportunities

II. How to Create Interpretive Exhibits — The Process

1. Getting Started II-1
2. Planning II-2
- Important Planning Considerations
3. Design Process II-6
- Design Professionals
- Public Agencies
- Reference Materials
- Process and Schedule
- Bicentennial Project Coordination
4. Implementation II-9
- Final Review and Permits
- Fabrication, Construction, and Installation

III. Washington's Lewis and Clark Story

Imagery, Regional Context, and Suggested Interpretive Topics

Elements of Continuity III-2
- American Indian Perspectives
- Early 1800s Frontier Explorations
- Corps of Discovery
- Trade
- Age of Enlightenment
- Traveling the Snake and Columbia Rivers
Regional Imagery III-5
- Southeastern Washington

- Columbia River Gorge
- Southwestern Washington

Suggested Interpretive Topics III-9
- General Topics and Potential “Binding Threads”
- Specific Topics and Example Themes

IV. Interpretive Guidelines

Interpretive Considerations IV-1
Interpretive Themes IV-2
Interpretive Graphics and Text IV-3
- Layout
- Graphics
- Images
- Type
- Interpretive Text

Siting Interpretive Elements IV-6

V. Outdoor Exhibits, Markers, and Other Elements

Outdoor Exhibits

Interpretive and Orientation Panels V-1
- Advantages of Panels
- Types of Panel Materials
- Detailed Interpretive Panel
- Standard Interpretive Panel

Interpretive Panel Bases, Stands, and Frames V-6
- Columnar Basalt Base
- The Pole Stand
- The Timber Base
- Orientation Panel (Or Major Interpretative Panel)

Kiosks V-10
- The Pit Structure Style Kiosk
- The Mat and Pole Style Kiosk
- The Plank Style Kiosk

Marking Other Elements
(Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Plaques) V-14
- Trail/Milepost Markers
- Site Markers
- Other Elements

Table of Contents

VI. Appendix

Panel Layout Grids VI-1
Type Styles VI-3
International Symbols VI-7
The Lewis and Clark Trail and Highway Signs VI-8
  - Trailblazer Logo Signs
  - Advance Signing - Lewis and Clark Heritage Signs
  - Supplemental Guide Signs
  - Reflective Gateway Signs
Resource List VI-11
  - State Agencies and Organizations
  - Tribal Representatives (Partial List)
  - Local Community Representatives
  - National Agencies and Organizations
Reference Materials VI-15
Image Credits VI-21
Potential Funding Opportunities VI-22

VII. Color Palette